"Our Manners are an outward expression of our inward character."

—JUDI THE MANNERS LADY

"Congratulations on launching The Canadian Project for Manners & Civility. I commend you for this creative approach to promote family and community values."

—THE RT. HON. STEPHEN HARPER, P.C., M.P., PRIME MINISTER OF CANADA

"As a community, we appreciate the vital importance that good manners & civility play in improving the quality of life for our community. We wish you a terrific National Manners Month... all year long!"

—KURT ALBERTS, MAYOR, LANGLEY TOWNSHIP

"We cannot do enough to reinforce the value of respect. Politeness should be an integral part of our DNA. National Manners Month in Langley will help remind us of the importance of manners, character and civility in our homes and in our community."

—PETER FASSBENDER, MAYOR, LANGLEY CITY

"Without good manners, we cannot function as a society. Manners are the shared patterns of behaviour that allow us to work and play together, to help one another and to succeed in our endeavours."

—CHERYLE BEAUMONT, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS, LANGLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT

"Individuals with good manners demonstrate good character. Individuals with good character generally do the right thing. It's through courtesy, kindness, and respect of oneself and others that solid, healthy communities are built upon."
